

IMS PLENARY SESSION

17:30–19:00 | Monday, 5 June 2017

Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort, Coral Ballroom

Organizers: Victor Lubecke, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa; Debabani Choudhury, Intel Labs

Session Co-Chairs: Andy Morishita, Northrop Grumman Aerospace Systems;Carolynn Kitamura, Raytheon Space and Airborne Systems

Dr. Henning Schulzrinne

CTO, FCC
Levi Professor of Computer Science,
Columbia University

5G: Enabled by Technology,
With Public Policy Assist

In keeping with the Hawai'i 5G theme, Prof. Henning Schulzrinne, Chief Technologist of the US Federal Communications Commission and Levi Professor of Computer Science at Columbia University, will present a keynote address sharing his insight on the future of wireless data and the role of public policy.

Dr. Wen Tong

Huawei Fellow
CTO, Wireless Network,
Huawei Technologies Co., Ltd.

5G: The New Radio Technology
Connecting Everything

Dr. Wen Tong will present the key enabling technologies for 5G new radio technology, the associated proof-of-concept trials, and progress toward industrial standardization. He will present the challenges and new directions for 5G radio, and the timeline for market roll-out.

MONDAY

IMS WELCOME RECEPTION

19:00–20:30 | Monday, 5 June 2017

Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort, Great Lawn

Please join us for the IMS2017 Welcome Reception immediately following the Plenary Session. All registered attendees and guests are encouraged to attend.

